

Day Three

Listen to the episode. Read the following questions, and write your answers in the box provided.

The only thing we've found that makes the emptiness bearable, is each other. It's an awful waste of space! What conclusions do you draw from looking at the night sky? What does it tell you about God and us?

Reflection: Read Romans 1.18-20. In what way does creation speak about the character of God? Try to be specific as you think over the detail of creation. Allow your thoughts to lead you into worship. Prayer.

Day Four

The writer's emphasis is on assigning function. Bringing order out of chaos. How do you respond to the idea that creation from the very beginning had to do with assigning a purpose to each created thing?

Listen to the episode. Read the following questions, and write your answers in the box provided Reflection: Read Psalm 8 and meditate on it. Ask God to show what it means that,

You made him ruler over the works of your hands;
you put everything under his feet:

OR

Respond to God after reading these verses:

what is man that you are mindful of him,
the son of man that you care for him?

Prayer.

Day Five

We're told that creation is good. What implications does this have for us as Christians? Does that statement provide a challenge to you as you consider how you live in God's world? If so, write some reflections in the box below. This is just between you and God.

Listen to the episode. Read the following questions, and write your answers in the box provided.

Reflection: If God is creative, then so are you. What areas of your life express the creativity you have been given by God? Are you developing your creative gifts or squandering them? How is God challenging you in this area? OR Is God speaking a word of encouragement to you today, to prompt you to start afresh some creative project in your life? Spend some time sitting quietly before God, and ask him to speak to you on this matter.

Prayer.
