

Day One

Listen to the episode. Read the following questions, and write your answers in the box provided.

In Genesis, God works to create an environment in which humankind can flourish. What does this tell us about the character of God?

Reflection: I know I'm supposed to hate humans, but there's something about them. They don't just survive: they discover, they create. How do you respond to this quote from Remy, the rat? In what ways do you reflect God in your own creativity? Is there a project you have been avoiding, where risk is involved, that God is calling you into? When you are creative, what is the effect on your soul, and on others? Bring worship to God for the gifts he has given you. Prayer.

Day Two

Listen to the episode. Read the following questions, and write your answers in the box provided.

There was an obsession in those times with death. How to avoid it. And how to gain immortality. How do we attempt to gain immortality in our day?

Reflection: To pursue wisdom in the absence of revelation is to assert our own independence.

How do you combine your search for wisdom with reliance on the revelation of the Bible? What happens when you assert your independence and live in the absence of God? Is God calling you to trust him more? If so, come before him to confess, and place your trust in God for every area of your life. Prayer.
