Stop boasting

James 4.13-17 Week 7

Day One

Listen to the episode. Read the following questions, and write your answers in the box provided.

Do you have a “claim to fame?” Can “claims to fame” be misused? Have you ever tried to use your connections inappropriately?

Reflection: Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring. Prov 27.1. What is the balance between planning and trusting God? How does it work in your life? In what ways do you betray your lack of trust in God? Confess, if necessary.

OR How has God demonstrated his faithfulness in your life? Think of an occasion when you experienced the faithfulness of God in a tangible way, and bring praise to him for his goodness. Prayer.

Day Two

Listen to the episode. Read the following questions, and write your answers in the box provided.

I want a father who is the same in the morning as he is at night. Do you resonate with this desire? Write some thoughts below. Bring them to God in prayer.

Reflection: Gary Habermas characterizes faith as meaning “I do” in marriage. What does that mean? Write some ideas above. And do you agree? If faith means something like “leaning upon” what does that look like in your life? Which corners of your life do you cordon off for yourself, failing to trust God for his will and his guidance and provision? Confess, and invite God into those areas that have until now, been protected inside your heart from your heavenly father. (If this isn’t an issue for you, then think about the ways God has remained faithful to you, and thank him. Just like the reflection from yesterday. You can never thank him enough. Prayer.
