

Day One

Listen to the episode. Read the following questions, and write your answers in the box provided.

They'll drown you in so many irrelevant documents that you'll wake up in a cold sweat. Gregory. Flash of Genius. Have you ever met gross injustice in your life? How did you feel? What was your experience of God during that time? Write some reflections below.

Reflection: I'm the one who interprets it and crucially, the one who makes it possible to follow. A paraphrase of what Jesus means. When you think of "the law," how do you respond? What does it mean to you that it is Christ who makes it possible to follow the law? How does God empower you to live a righteous life? Reflect on your experience of his power in your life, and allow it to lead you to worship. Prayer.

Day Two

Listen to the episode. Read the following questions, and write your answers in the box provided.

I am all I've got left, and I am all I need. Dr. Gillian Magwilde. Bonekickers What's wrong with self-sufficiency? Is there anything positive about it? Write some thoughts below.

Reflection: Love is the fulfilment of the law. St. Paul. In what way is Jesus, then, the fulfilment of the law? Is it his teaching or him personally, or both? In what way is God challenging you to love more? Especially to love those who are hard to love? Ask for God's strength and guidance in loving those in your life who are causing you problems. Prayer.
