Sin sets in: Genesis 4.17-26

1. It is in your nature to destroy yourselves. So says Arnold in Terminator 2. Do you agree? Discuss.

2. Both blessing and curse are interwoven into human experience. In what ways are the blessing and the curse seen in your lives, and society as a whole?

3. Lamech is the first recorded polygamist in the Bible. Go back to Genesis 2.24 and discuss the relationship between this verse and the New Testament. Read I Corinthians 7 or Ephesians 5. What is marriage for? And what makes a successful marriage?

4. Some people also see the combination of city-building and physical violence as the first reference to war among human beings. (This was cut from the deovox episode, but it's an excellent point for discussion) Is there such thing as a just war? If so, what justifies war?

5. For into our violent world, the Prince of Peace will one day triumphantly return. What signs of hope do you see in the world today? In your community, And in your lives?
