

- Tue 23rd Pray for Peter Williams as he attends a workshop at the Evangelical Alliance about their Forum For Change project, on behalf of Damaris.
- Joy Martin is presenting the President for a Day Experience today at Perse School for Girls in Cambridge.
- Wed 24th Pray for Katie Coles and Nick Pollard as they liaise about the development of the Tools For Talks website. Pray that we may be able to make the site even more user-friendly and that it would continue to serve people in their ministries.
- Thurs 25th Pray for more schools to hear about the President for a Day Experience and to book the conference. Although we are seeing growth in the number of bookings, we are currently some way off our target of 50% growth – please pray we reach this target.
- Fri 26th Pray for Jamie Young working on the next stage of the World View Survey, particularly for wisdom as to how to publish it.
- Sat 27th Pray for the development (alongside Assemblies Online Primary) of a training package for headteachers and school visitors which will equip them to use popular culture to aid spiritual and emotional development in under-12s.
- Sun 28th Give thanks for our partnership with Deo Gloria Trust and pray for Eric Thompson as he spends time promoting Assemblies Online (Primary) with diocesan education advisors.
- Mon 29th Tony Watkins is meeting with the Solent University Christian Union advisory group to discuss the forthcoming mission in February which Tony is leading with Tom Price. Pray for Tony at this meeting, and working on the material to use in the mission.
- Tue 30th Pray for Tony Watkins, who is speaking about postmodernity at the Solent University CU meeting tonight.
- Wed 31st Give thanks for the steady increase of material on Assemblies Online (Secondary) and pray for Managing Editor Steve Couch and his team of writers as they prepare the site for a full launch this Spring. Give thanks for the people who have taken up our offer of a pre-launch subscription and are already using the material on the site, and pray for more people to hear of it.

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armour of God so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. Therefore put on the full armour of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand.

- Mon 1st As schools start back this week, pray for teachers who are using RE Lessons Online (Secondary), and for students taking part in lessons drawn from the site. Give thanks for the increasing number of teachers and school who subscribe (and for the large number who resubscribe every year), and pray that our material will continue to prove a valuable tool for their teaching, and will help students to develop a clearer understanding of the Christian faith.
- Tue 2nd The Damaris office re-opens today. Pray for all of the Damaris team starting back today, that they would be able to quickly get back into the right working mindset, and particularly for Kate Laver and Steve Alexander as they open up the office after the break.
- Wed 3rd Pray for Carol Pollard as she continues to fulfil her responsibilities at Damaris whilst also helping her daughter Lizzie through this very difficult period of her life.
- Thurs 4th Give thanks for Emily Dalrymple's work at Damaris over the last 16 months. As she moves on pray that God would give her guidance and wisdom in finding the right job and that she would be able to hear from Him about it. Pray also for Emily and her family to have peace about letting God lead her in this next stage of her life.

- Fri 5th Give thanks for the new standing orders and donations we have received towards the employment of a new Executive Director for the next 3 years, in order to relieve pressure on Carol and Nick. Pray for enough money to be donated or pledged that we would meet our target and be able to begin searching for the right person. To donate, please go to www.damaris.org/support
- Sat 6th Damaris has launched new partnerships for churches and charities to work with us (see www.damaris.org/partnerships). Pray that many organisations would hear about this and take advantage of this opportunity. Pray that Damaris would be a blessing to churches and charities as we seek to resource them.
- Sun 7th Pray for Tony Watkins as he plans a tour of key locations in the UK. The aim is to run seminars or workshops tying in with his new book about understanding films at the level of worldviews – due to be published later this year.
- Mon 8th Due to the current pressure on Nick and Carol Pollard we have had to postpone the conference for leaders from Central and Eastern Europe who want to adapt Damaris resources for use in their own countries. Pray for Kate Laver and Heather May as they seek to re-arrange this for the autumn.
- Tue 9th Tony Watkins travels to Norway today to lecture for our friends at Gimlekollen School of Journalism and Communication, and do some work with members of Damaris Norway on their Confirmation Online project. He is accompanied by Marina Puzyrenko (who works for Innovista in Kiev), who will be beginning a study break with Damaris on their return to England.
- Wed 10th Pray for wisdom for Nick Pollard and Jack Merrifield (from the Evangelical Alliance), meeting today about the possibility of a partnership between Damaris and the EA.
- Thurs 11th Pray that many private schools would consider hosting a President for a Day conference and inviting students from local state schools to attend – as we are suggesting to them in a letter going out at the moment.
- Fri 12th Pray for Katie Coles as she approaches people about sponsoring the Global Student Forum 2007. Pray that relevant companies will be inspired by the vision of the conference and get involved.
- Sat 13th Pray for Peter Williams, presenting a Science, freedom and responsibility conference single-handedly for the first time today. It is at De Lisle Catholic School in Loughborough.
- Sun 14th Pray for the development of a major partnership with Trans World Radio. We hope to work together to reach many people, particularly teenagers in countries where it is not easy to communicate the Christian gospel.
- Mon 15th Pray for Marina Puzyrenko who is starting a month-long study break with Damaris today. Pray for her to settle here well and quickly get to grips with writing material for CultureWatch. Give thanks for Heather and Peter May who are providing accommodation for her while she is in Southampton.
- Tue 16th Give thanks for all those who have subscribed to Assemblies Online (Primary) and pray for an increase in subscribers. Pray that publicity will reach people who influence the choice of material used by those leading assemblies in primary schools.
- Wed 17th Pray for Clare Mellis, doing a President for a Day Experience today at Broadlands School in Bristol.
- Thurs 18th Pray for Katie Coles as she approaches Schools' Regional Broadband Networks to introduce the idea of supplying Assemblies Online to all the schools in their area. Pray that these organisations would see the worth of Assemblies Online and be willing to fund the cost of giving their schools access to it.
- Fri 19th Nick Pollard and Peter Williams are presenting the school conference Science, freedom and responsibility today at Hayesfield School in Bath.
- Sat 20th Pray for Tony Watkins as he seeks to expand the pool of writers for CultureWatch – pray he would find many appropriate people.
- Sun 21st Pray for Becky Ward who provides proof reading for many Damaris projects. Give thanks for her diligence, accuracy and willingness to accommodate tight deadlines.
- Mon 22nd Pray for Steve Couch as he writes and edits RE Lessons Online (Secondary), and for all the rest of the team who enable Damaris to provide this top quality resource for our subscribers.
