

- Mon 23^d Give thanks for the film companies that allow us to use downloadable clips of films on cinematic release in Assemblies Online. Pray for continued good relationships between Damaris and these companies, and for the assemblies that come out of these relationships to be useful for our subscribers.
- Tue 24th Pray for Damaris team members as they plan to take part in the Lausanne III Conference in Cape Town this October.
- Wed 25th Give thanks for our relationships with Pathé Productions. Today leaders of development organisations will be previewing our latest co-promotion Africa United (release date 22/10/10), which highlights needs in Africa and calls for our response.
- Thurs 26th Please pray for Peter Williams who is teaching at Gimlekollen School in Norway over the next few days. Pray for good health and energy and that he would be able to effectively serve and inspire the students he is teaching.
- Fri 27th Praise God for those who generously support our ministry. We are so grateful for those who faithfully pray for us and thank God for their continuing encouragement.
- Sat 28th Pray for Tony Watkins as he makes preparations to return from his sabbatical soon.
- Sun 29th Give thanks for our new presenters of the President for a Day Experience conference. Pray for them as they prepare to present their first solo conferences in September.
- Mon 30th Please pray for Peter Williams as he makes plans for a new 'Reasonable Faith?' apologetics course at Highfield Church, Southampton in the new academic year.
- Tue 31st Please pray for all those who read and use material from the Culturewatch website. Pray it would be helpful to them in thinking about the messages of films, books, albums and TV programmes, and in considering what the Bible has to say about these issues.

In fact, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil men and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it, and how from infancy you have known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

- Sun 1st David Whitmarsh is preaching this morning at Shirrell Heath Methodist Church. Pray that he will be an encouragement to those who meet to worship God.
- Mon 2nd Give thanks for the break that the Damaris Norway staff have had. Please pray for them as they return to work this month.
- Tue 3rd Pray for Sophie Lister as she writes material for the Culturewatch Course consisting of a Leaders' Guide and booklets to give away after each event. Pray that she would be inspired in her writing.
- Wed 4th Praise God for the opportunity to work with Pathé Productions on the movie Africa United (released on 22/10/10). Pray for the media team (led by Susie Templeton) as they prepare video resources in a short space of time.
- Thurs 5th Pray for the newly re-launched Snakk om Tro website (Damaris Norway's version of Tools for Talks). Pray that the changes that have been made would make it even more useful to subscribers.
- Fri 6th Please pray for Fiona Stewart and Holly Price as they begin preparing material for Assemblies Online (Primary) for the new academic year. Pray for insight into the issues facing primary-aged children today, and the creativity to speak into these areas.

Sat 7 th	Praise God that some of the Damaris team are able to take time off during August to rest and relax with their families. Pray that this would be a special time of refreshing for all.	Sat 14 th	Please continue to pray for Tony Watkins on sabbatical at present – that he would truly be refreshed during this extended time of reading, relaxation and renewal.
Sun 8 th	Give thanks for Tom Roberts, who has finished his year-long placement at Damaris. Give thanks for the material he produced for Culturewatch during this time and pray for him in his future.	Sun 15 th	David Whitmarsh is preaching at Grace Baptist Church, Portsmouth today. Pray that what he says will be helpful to his listeners.
Mon 9 th	Give thanks for the end of another term and another academic year. Give thanks for the many RE Lessons Online subscribers who have used our resources in their lessons, particularly those who have been with us for many years. Pray for wisdom as we seek to make the site useful to an ever-wider range of schools, teachers and schools workers.	Mon 16 th	Please pray for the Culturewatch team during Tony Watkins' sabbatical. Pray for inspiration in writing and efficiency in editing, proofing and admin work.
Tue 10 th	Please pray for the deovox project as we approach the end of our series on the Psalms. Pray for the listeners to understand the richness found in these poems from Israel's hymnbook. Pray also for Richard Collins, the managing editor, as he prepares to take a break during the summer. Pray for a good rest before deovox starts up again in September.	Tue 17 th	Give thanks for the Damaris admin team, particularly for Brian Leask and Steve Alexander working to do the administration of our conferences, website and resources. Pray that they would be able to make the most of the quieter time during August.
Wed 11 th	Pray for the writing team (led by Steve Couch) as they prepare written resources in a short space of time for the movie Africa United (released on 22/10/10).	Wed 18 th	Please pray for Sophie Lister's weekly discussions on new film and DVD releases with Paul Hammond of UCB UK radio. Pray for Sophie as she spends time preparing for these interviews and converting them into Culturewatch podcasts. Pray also that many people would hear them and be inspired to engage with contemporary culture.
Thurs 12 th	Pray for Steve Alexander as he plans and enacts changes to the main Damaris website to make it more helpful to those seeking to find out about Damaris.	Thurs 19 th	Pray for Nick Pollard teaching at Gimlekollen School of Journalism and Communication in Norway over the next few days. Pray that Nick is effective in his teaching and that the students would be encouraged to engage with contemporary culture and worldviews from a biblical perspective.
Fri 13 th	Give thanks for Assemblies Online (Secondary) and pray for Managing Editor Steve Couch as he writes and edits new material. Pray for him to be able to use the summer break well, preparing new material for publication in the autumn. Pray as well for all of our subscribers as they recharge their batteries over the summer. Pray for renewed energy and enthusiasm when they return to schools in September, and for our resources to continue to help them to challenge their students to reflect on spiritual and moral issues from a Christian perspective.	Fri 20 th	Please pray for the team as we make some changes to the Tools for Talks website. Pray that these renovations will make the site more useful to Christian speakers seeking to engage people with the Bible through culture.
		Sat 21 st	Peter Williams has sent the manuscript of his new book Understanding Jesus to Paternoster Press. Please pray for a publishing contract with them for this book.
		Sun 22 nd	David Whitmarsh is preaching this morning at Cowplain Evangelical Church. Pray that he will be an encouragement to those who meet to worship God.
