

- Tue 23rd Please pray for Nick and Carol Pollard and Daniel Sinclair (of Christian Aid) as they conduct interviews for the newly created position of National Co-ordinator for the Global Student Forum. Pray that the interviews go well and that the right person is chosen for the job.
- Wed 24th Pray for wisdom as we continue to seek ways to bring Assemblies Online (Secondary) to a wider audience. Give thanks for our current subscribers and pray that our resources will continue to help secondary school students think about spiritual and moral issues from a Christian perspective. Pray for Managing Editor Steve Couch as he writes and edits.
- Thurs 25th Thank God for Aleksandra Glapinska who cleans the Damaris office. Pray that the Lord will bless her in this service.
- Fri 26th Pray for Peter Williams presenting the That's a Good Argument conference today in Cheddar, Somerset.
- Sat 27th Pray for inspiration and careful planning as the Damaris leadership seek to take Damaris forward into the next stage of development.
- Sun 28th Pray for David Whitmarsh speaking at Cowplain Evangelical Church this evening in a series on the life of King David.
- Mon 29th Please pray for Rebekah Legg as she presents the President for a Day Experience today in Southampton, and for Susie Templeton as she films this conference to use in training new presenters. Pray also for Jenny Baker presenting the Ethics in an Age of Science conference this Wednesday in Northampton.
- Tue 30th Please pray for Holly Price as she sources material for Tools for Talks. Pray that the quotes and clips will be really beneficial to people who are preparing talks.
- Wed 31st Thank God for his provision for the financial needs of Damaris. Pray that we would see even more regular and one-off donations in the coming weeks.

Then the Lord raised up judges, who saved them out of the hands of these raiders. Yet they would not listen to their judges but prostituted themselves to other gods and worshiped them. Unlike their ancestors, they quickly turned from following the way of their ancestors, the way of obedience to the Lord's commands. Whenever the Lord raised up a judge for them, he was with the judge and saved them out of the hands of their enemies as long as the judge lived; for the Lord relented because of their groaning under those who oppressed and afflicted them. But when the judge died, the people returned to ways even more corrupt than those of their ancestors, following other gods and serving and worshiping them. They refused to give up their evil practices and stubborn ways.
