

- Sun 24th Give thanks for the many students who have been taught using RE Lessons Online in this academic year. Pray for them to think clearly about spiritual truth and to recognise the relevance of what they study to their own lives. Pray as well for Managing Editor Steve Couch, continuing to write, edit and publish new material during term time.
- Pray for school RE departments, particularly those with reduced budgets. Pray for decision makers to continue to recognise the value of RE Lessons Online and to make room in their budget to renew subscriptions when they fall due.
- Mon 25th Please pray for completion of work on the Culturewatch Course to get it ready for publication.
- Tue 26th We have recently started running monthly update emails for Assemblies Online; pray that these would be helpful to subscribers in informing them of new material on both the Primary and Secondary websites. Pray also that they would be forwarded to people who may find the website helpful, and that this will lead to more people using our assemblies. Pray for the pupils who take part in those assemblies, that they will be challenged to think about spiritual and moral issues from a Christian perspective. Pray for Steve Couch, Fiona Stewart and Holly Price as they continue to write and edit new material for the Primary and Secondary sites.
- Wed 27th Pray for Peter Williams as he speaks at the first of four consecutive evenings on an apologetics course at King's Community Church in Hedge End, Southampton where he'll be discussing 'The Incoherence of the New Atheism' and 'Richard Dawkins vs. Cosmic Fine Tuning'.
- Thurs 28th Pray for work developing our School Conferences as we prepare to roll out updated versions of the Ethics in an Age of Science and That's a Good Argument conferences in September.
- Fri 29th Pray for the team as they start work on our seasonal resources for All Saints' Day/Halloween.
- Sat 30th Nick and Carol's son Luke gets married today. Pray for an enjoyable day and for Luke and Lilly as they start married life together.
- Sun 31st Please pray for Tony Watkins as he prepares to speak at Gimlekollen School of Journalism and Communications in August.

The Lord is good to all; he has compassion on all he has made. All your works praise you, Lord; your faithful people extol you. They tell of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might, so that all people may know of your mighty acts and the glorious splendour of your kingdom. Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures through all generations. The Lord is trustworthy in all he promises and faithful in all he does.

- Fri 1st Please pray for a President for a Day Experience, presented by Matt Lewis today at a school in Swansea.
- Sat 2nd Hannah Civval is getting married today; please pray for her and her fiancé as they begin married life together.
- Pray too for a President for a Day Experience taking place today at a school in Cheltenham, presented by Andy Haynes.
- Sun 3rd Give thanks for the many students who attended Global Student Forum this week. Pray that as they go back to their schools they would take up the many challenges and share all they have learned with their peers. Pray too for all the follow up happening this week, and for Carol as she oversees this.
- Mon 4th Please pray for inspiration for Carol as she writes for Movie Moments this week.
- Tue 5th Give thanks for release of the music video produced by school students from last year's Global Student Forum. Pray that the video would succeed in raising awareness about the need for education for all. Pray also for good sales of the DVD containing the video (plus bonus features) from www.thetoystore.com (70% of proceeds go to the Msaada Trust, www.msaada.org). You can preview the video at www.globalstudentforum.org/getshorty
- Pray too for a Trustees conference call happening tomorrow, as they make some big decisions about the office lease, finances and any response to DFID about GSF funding.

Wed 6 th	Pray for three school conferences taking place today: two That's a Good Argument conferences (presented by Peter Williams and Ian Hamlin) and a President for a Day Experience (presented by Rebekah Legg).	Fri 15 th	Please pray for the Norwegian website Kulturvinduet (Culturewatch) that has recently been re-launched with a different design. Pray that many people will make good use of the resources.
Thurs 7 th	The Global Student Forum management group are meeting today. Please pray for them as they assess this year's conference and begin to plan for the next. Pray too for Tony Watkins as he is being interviewed for the apologetics315.com website.	Sat 16 th	Pray for work on a new edition of Viewfinder based on X-Men: First Class . This resource provides a full church service plan aimed at helping 18-30 year olds to think about what the Bible has to say on contemporary issues. Pray that many churches would hear about this and would be inspired to use the resource to reach this age group – which many churches have difficulty doing outreach to.
Fri 8 th	We are still seeking to find interns for the coming academic year. Please pray for the right people to hear about this opportunity and apply, and pray that we would be able to appoint two or three interns by September.	Sun 17 th	Pray for Steve Couch as he develops a new ongoing internal training programme for creative staff during the summer. Pray for wisdom and creativity and for a Damaris team even better-equipped to create high quality resources for the Damaris community.
Sat 9 th	Please pray for Nick, Carol and Richard Baker as they oversee the preparations for Global Student Forum Scotland, which is taking place on 8 th September. Pray for efficiency as they seek to get many tasks done before the summer holiday.	Mon 18 th	Peter Williams is presenting an Ethics in an Age of Science conference today at a school in London. Please pray for him as he presents, and for the students as they engage with ethical issues.
Sun 10 th	Please continue to pray for intern Becci Jones as she applies for jobs and makes plans for after she has left Damaris in August.	Tue 19 th	Please pray for a President for a Day Experience taking place today at a school in Harlow, presented by Rebekah Legg.
Mon 11 th	Please pray for eight school conferences this week. Pray for the students as they engage with moral and spiritual issues, and pray for the presenters as they deliver the conferences.	Wed 20 th	Pray for Steve Alexander as he makes plans to help more people hear about Damaris resources, both in churches and in schools.
Tue 12 th	Pray for Steve Alexander in his new role as Operations Manager of Damaris Trust.	Thurs 21 st	Give thanks for the positive response to the pilot edition of our all-age church service resource Admit All. Pray for wisdom as we consider other organisations to partner with in taking this project forward. Pray particularly for Steve Couch and Steve Alexander as they work to develop the project.
Wed 13 th	Give thanks for our recent partnership with Soda Pictures on the film The First Grader , and for all our other partnerships with film companies this year. Pray for wisdom as we pick the right films to work on in this way. Give thanks for the increasing number of film companies approaching us to work with them, and pray for wisdom as we respond to these requests.	Fri 22 nd	Please pray for Primary and Secondary school teachers as the end of term draws near. Pray that the resources on Assemblies Online will be a valuable help for them in this busy time.
Thurs 14 th	Thank God for the array of downloadable clips currently available on Tools for Talks. Pray that these will be used by many speakers to illuminate biblical concepts. Pray too for the ongoing work of sourcing clips and gaining permission to use them.	Sat 23 rd	Give thanks for Vicky Thompson who faithfully helps with the sending out of this prayer diary.
